Vehicle Care Corner: Saving Money at the Gas Pump

Gas prices have been on the rise lately, but there are a few strategies you can use as a consumer to help lower your fuel costs. To start, the way you use your vehicle can make a big difference. Be sure to:

- Check your tire pressure, proper inflation can boost your gas mileage by 3%
- Drive the speed limit, fuel efficiency greatly reduces once speed increases over 50 mph
- Map your route using GPS, most mobile apps offer an option for the most fuel efficient path

And make smart choices when you fill your tank:

- Track local prices to find the best deals
- Sign up for a fuel rewards program or club membership
- Some gas stations will offer lower prices if you pay with cash

Community Outreach: Liberty Scholarships

This past May, Dollinger & Company worked with the Historical Society of Sanford, MI to facilitate the donation of 450 pocket-sized copies of the United States Constitution and Declaration of Independence to the students of Meridian High.

We also announced our sponsorship of three Liberty Scholarships, to be awarded to the authors of the best handwritten essays outlining what those founding documents mean to them.

History Corner: Genora Dollinger, the Joan of Arc of Labor

Genora Johnson Dollinger was the founder of the Women's Auxiliary and the Emergency Brigade. She also helped organize the 1937 sit-down strikes against GM in Flint, Michigan. Her actions were crucial to securing the UAW's foothold at General Motors.
